

Local Matters.

Saturday Morning, 11: March 12, '59.

MEMPHIS—All persons will not be purchase papers from your regular carriers. The papers do not belong to them; they have no authority to sell, and every sale by them is a fraud upon us, and a cheat upon our subscribers.

The regular carrier of the Datta, Advertiser, Commercial Standard, and Memphis Daily Appeal. The circulation of the Sunday edition is circled, headed and typed. This is larger by far than the circulation of any other daily paper in the State.

The alarm of fire last night was occasioned by a fire in the Advertiser office in Peacock Alley, in South Memphis.

LAWYERS—We are indebted to the offices of the Nobles and the M. C. Brady, Esq., for some New Orleans papers.

DR. LEWIS GREEN of Cooper College, Ky., will lecture before the Young Men's Missionary Association on Sunday evening. The subject will be announced.

ARMED EXERCISES—To this excellent institution and its excellent agents, S. S. Bidwell, Esq., and J. A. Armstrong, we send our hearty thanks for their kind services.

THE MEMPHIS ELECTION—We received a dispatch from J. E. Archer of the Southern last night, stating that that honest man Hickman had given up at 6 o'clock last evening. She will arrive her today at 2 o'clock.

JACKSON ELECTION—We are indebted to a correspondent for the following list of names of those who voted for Hayes and Jackson: Town Constable, James Quinn, Captain, A. J. Price, G. W. Smith, F. L. Watson, P. W. Jones, R. R. Kellogg.

THE MEMPHIS—The ladies were largely in attendance at the auction sales of jewels and jewelry, yesterday afternoon, at the residence of G. B. Lock & Co., 205 Main street, Sales with extreme sales of $10,000 per day, and at 7 o'clock, the regular pocket for that day. The Dickies have no superior or passenger steamer, and her officers are held in high estimation.

THE VICTORIA—The Captain, Mr. Folger, clerk, leaves at 5 o'clock this afternoon, on his regular trip to Vickburg. Travellers waiting for steamers will be disappointed.
